

CYS is counting down the minutes to Shakespeare400, as celebrations around the globe commemorate the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's legacy. So to kick off the festivities, CYS is compiling our very own list of #400Reasons to Celebrate, and we want you to join in. Throughout the day on April 23, we invite you to help us celebrate the Bard by sharing the reason YOU love Shakespeare on our Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram pages. Use #400Reasons and tag CYShakes for a shoutout!

And for a little inspiration, check out a special BardBlog400 post from CYS Founding Artistic Director, Manon Spadaro
